

investment properties corporation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Christine Gonnering McManus of IPC earns SIOR designation
Prestigious certification signifies expertise in industrial and office real estate

NAPLES, FL. (12/3/2014) – Investment Properties Corporation (IPC) announces that leasing/sales agent Christine Gonnering McManus has earned her Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) designation, the leading professional industrial and office real estate association.

A commercial real estate sales and leasing professional with IPC, Christine holds a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in business administration from The University of Central Florida in Orlando. She joined IPC in 2007 with 10 years of experience in the Southwest Florida real estate market and having earned Sales Person of the Year honors. In 2010, Christine earned her Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation, the leading indicator of expertise in commercial and investment real estate.

It is also noteworthy that McManus works with her father, Bill Gonnering at IPC, who has held the SIOR designation since 1999, and the CCIM designation since 1982.

IPC is one of the area's oldest commercial real estate brokerage firms. The firm is owned and operated by principals Bill Gonnering, CCIM, SIOR; David J. Stevens, CCIM; Craig D. Timmins, CCIM and Clint Sherwood, CCIM. Since 1976, the IPC team has serviced Southwest Florida with buyer and seller representation, site selection, leasing, exchanges, consulting and development services. IPC is located at 3838 Tamiami Trail North, Suite 402, in Naples. For more information: (239) 261-3400 (phone); (239) 261-7579 (fax); www.ipcnaples.com.

-END-